

Maidenhead

4 Nov. 1866

My dear Sir

I sent to you, directly with my own hand N<sup>o</sup> 23 & 24 of my Green Series, as well as every other N<sup>o</sup>. of that colour. If they have not reached you, I assure you that the fault is not mine. N<sup>o</sup> 23 was one of those you mention, Jordan's "Royal Abours" &c. 1664. How 24 should have reached you and not 23 I cannot understand. "England's Halcyon" is part of a series of Poetical Miscellanies in blue covers, and for those you did not send me your name nor your money. Those I invariably announced under my own signature in the Athenæum.

I am heartily sorry for your disappointments in these respects; and not less so for the annoyances you speak of.

No single copy of any of the Poetical Miscellanies now remains in my hands; but I have some scattered copies of the green series.

Yours very sincerely
J. M. Harlow Esq. J. Payne Collier
